Department Of Chemistry

S.V.N. College, Nagamalai, Madurai.

TOPIC: Colourful Career for College Chemists

On 10.2.2011, our Chemistry department conducted a one day workshop on the topic “Colourful Career for College Chemists”. Our chief guest Dr. N. Ezhil, Associate Professor from S.V.N. College gave a different exposure on various career opportunities for under graduates. He explained the importance and role of the chemists in today’s world. He also explained some life style ethics and moral values that are essential in workplace, family and society. He gave counselling to our students about their academic studies and life skills. His personality development lecture and guidance about their career were useful for our students.
